Just like any other night, Mama read a book to Shivu, tucked her into bed, and turned off the lights.

But unlike any other night, Shivu couldn't sleep.

Something wasn't right.

Shivu tossed and turned and moved all round.

Her diaper didn't feel heavy.

Her tummy was full.

She rubbed her nose, scratched her brows, and sucked her thumb.

Shivu just couldn't fall asleep.

As she lay staring at the ceiling, the door opened and Mama entered.

"Sweetheart! I forgot to kiss you good night," she said. She kissed Shivu and lay down next to her.

That was what was missing. Shivu smiled and went right to sleep.

Good night, Starlight!
